TRANSPORT FOR NSW LEVEL CROSSING TRIALS – NARROMINE

Transport for NSW is trialling new technology at level crossings in regional NSW. The trials are designed to improve safety at railway level crossings by improving driver awareness of the level crossing and its risk. The passive level crossings will be made safer in a trial of radar-activated LED stop and advance warning signs.

The following technologies are installed at:

- Dandaloo Road, Narromine - Augmented Stop Sign
- Old Backwater Road, Narromine - Advance Warning Sign

To view a video of the signs and how they operate visit transport.nsw.gov.au/lxtrial
